

St. Louis USBC Scholarships

Ed Sweeney Stars of Tomorrow: The Edward Sweeney Scholarship is awarded annually to the male and female youth bowlers enrolled in high school, during the previous school year; exemplifies leadership in bowling and the community; and demonstrates bowling achievement.

Edward Sweeney was a leader in Men's Bowling in the St. Louis Areas as well as nationally serving as the National ABC President. He promoted the sport of bowling and men and youth competitions in St. Louis. All of the people, who knew of his great work, carry on his legacy. It is with great honor that this scholarship was created and awarded annually to young men and women for achievement in bowling, school and the community.

Myrtle Schulte Leadership Scholarship: The Myrtle Schulte Scholarship is awarded annually to the female youth bowler enrolled in high school, during the previous school year; exemplifies leadership in bowling and the community.

Myrtle Schulte was a leader in Women's Bowling in the St. Louis Area. She was instrumental in the development of St. Louis WBA and their leadership that evolved. She was also an integral adult leader in the development of youth bowling in the St. Louis Area. It is with great honor that this scholarship was created to her honor for her service in bowling.

Thomas Vercellone Leadership Scholarship: The Thomas Vercellone Scholarship is awarded annually to the male youth bowler enrolled in high school, during the previous school year and exemplifying leadership in bowling and in the community.

Thomas Vercellone was an active male bowler who promoted bowling to the St. Louis community. He especially promoted the good work that young youth males performed outside their leagues and within their leagues. It is with great honor that this scholarship was developed in the spirit of service to the bowling community and the community at large.
